

Do you need help with a complaint?

Contact the Health and Disability Services Complaints Office (HaDSCO)

If you, or someone you know, has a complaint about a health, disability or mental health service, HaDSCO is here to help.

Sometimes patients are unhappy with the service they receive.
Usually talking to the service directly can help.

If it doesn't, contact HaDSCO:

(08) 6551 7620 1800 813 583 (toll free for country callers)

mail@hadsco.wa.gov.au www.hadsco.wa.gov.au

HaDSCO can take complaints about:

Hospitals

Doctors

Dentists

Prison health services

Disability services

Mental health services

HaDSCO will listen and try to help. We can call you back if you give us your number.

We will talk to everyone involved to help with your complaint.
